The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by DETECTIVE J. MCLEMORE (JM), P# 13914. Also present is Detective D. Koop (DK), P# 4882.

JM: Hey [REDACTED] how are you doing?

[REDACTED] I'm all right.

JM: Good, (unintelligible) all right?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

JM: You don't mind if we record our interviews. Do you have any...

((Crosstalk))

DK: I'm Detective Koop, this is Detective McLemore.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Okay.

JM: I was just trying to get that.

[REDACTED] That's all right.

JM: (Unintelligible). Do you, uh...

DK: I don't know sometimes.

JM: ...do you mind if I record our conversation?

[REDACTED] No, that's fine.

JM: Oh, okay. Um, we're here under the event, uh, that happened down there. We just want to try to get some information from you, and then after we get some information from you, um, like contact information, we'd like to try to get your story of what you saw and what happened.

[REDACTED] Okay.

JM: Any problems with that?

[REDACTED] No problem.

JM: Um, if you don't mind what's your, uh, your full name?

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
JM: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Yeah.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
JM: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Correct.

JM: And your home address where you get mail, where you live?

[REDACTED]
JM: And do you have a phone number?

[REDACTED] Uh, [REDACTED] uh, I'll give you my two cells.

JM: Okay, that's fine.

[REDACTED] Uh, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

DK: What was your, uh, ZIP code again?

[REDACTED]
JM: All right, um, what injuries do you have?

[REDACTED] I have a gunshot wound to the, uh, left buttocks. Um, there's shrapnel. It's not a bullet, it's more shrapnel. Uh, they say there's a little shrapnel around the anus and I've got, uh, two fractured pelvises.

DK: What were they?

[REDACTED] Two fractured pelvises...

DK: Oh.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] ...left and right.

JM: Where were you at when this happened?

[REDACTED] Um, we were, uh, next to the, uh, booth, um, where they have all the audio and vidthe visuals, uh - um, in front of the stage.

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] Um, we were right over the...

JM: On the left or right?

[REDACTED] ...right side of it.

JM: So if you're facing the stage you were on the right - to the right of the stage?

[REDACTED] We're - yeah, if you're facing the stage on the right by the one booth, yeah.

JM: Okay. What did you see?

[REDACTED] Uh, not much of anything. I mean, we just - we were standing there and we heard like a round of - of just pop - pop - pop - pop. And somebody yelled, "What idiot's doing firecrackers?" And it was probably about 20 yards to our right. Um, and then it stopped and then there was a second burst, you know, 20, 30, uh - uh, snaps again. And at that point everybody was like, "We need to get out of here." I said, "That's - that's gunshots." So we turned around and we were heading towards the back towards the exit and, uh, at that point we, you know, we started hearing the third round we said, "Hit the ground." So I covered - I covered my wife and I - I wanna say there was a couple people on the ground that I was like hovering over. And, um,

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

then all of the sudden I felt something hit me in the butt and, uh, I said, "I've been hit. I just got hit." And, uh, at that point I don't remember much of anything other than, you know, people running by pushing, shoving everyone. We're laying on the ground. Um, people are like - I could hear people yelling, uh, "He's reloading. Everybody run." You know. Um, we had other people jumping the rail next to us trying to get, you know, under - behind the rail. Uh, we laid there for a while then, uh, another guy came up behind us and he says, "Hey, [REDACTED] Just stay down - stay down." And he kind of like hovered over us, um, and he just kept saying, "Stay down - stay down." And, um, after it seemed like there was no more gunfire -- 'cause I mean, it was like bursts and then nothing, bursts, nothing, bursts, just kept going like that. And after a while it finally seemed to - to stop. They said, "Everybody head to the exit." So, um, they said, "Can you walk?" I said, "Yeah, I can walk. I - I'm just hit in the butt. I can walk." So I got up and walked to, uh, started heading towards the exit and then, uh, somebody said, "Are you hit?" And I said, "Yes." They go, "There's an EMT right here. Have 'em check you out." Before we got to the exit -- this was by the Budweiser stand -- and he looked at it and he said, "Can you walk?" I said, "Yes." He said, "Good, head to the ambulances in the parking lot across the street." So we went over there and, um, they had two ambulances. One took a bunch of people that were more critical. The other one had no keys and no driver, so they shoved me in a little, uh, red car and with, uh, my wife and, uh, another girl that was shot and, uh, we went - just came here.

DK: Was the girl knew you originally or was she just some...

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

((Crosstalk))

[REDACTED] No, she was just somebody in the parking lot.

DK: Did the bullet travel through you?

[REDACTED] No, it - when it hit my butt I guess it just fragmented.

DK: Okay.

[REDACTED] So there's like a string of fragments. There's no, you know...

DK: No sole projectile?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

JM: Did you get...

DK: But it didn't hit your wife?

[REDACTED] No, I was covering her and so I was kind of protecting her and it just hit me.

DK: Did you get trampled?

[REDACTED] Um, that's the only thing I can think of that happened to my right side of my, uh...

DK: Pelvis.

[REDACTED] ...pelvis, because I can't - I mean, there's no bullet wound to the right side, there's no fragments over there, so the only thing I can think of is that why people were trying to hop over the railing that somebody must have hit me, like jumped on me to get over the rail. I - I real- I mean, after - after sitting there for a little while it was hard to tell of anything going on. I kind of...

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

JM: So...

[REDACTED] Yeah.

JM: ...when you - when you got hit in your - in your buttocks, that was during the second round of fire?

[REDACTED] It was probably around the third.

JM: The third.

[REDACTED] The third round.

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] 'Cause the first round hit beside us about 20 - about 20, 30, 40 feet away from us and you could see like a little opening in the crowd.

JM: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] And, um, and somebody's - I just heard somebody yell, you know, "Well, who's the idiot lighting off fire crackers?" The second burst came out and then somebody said, "That's not fire crackers, that's - that's gunshots. Everybody, let's get out of here." And it was during that third round that's when I got hit.

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] 'Cause the - as he started the third round I kind of like - everybody was just hitting the ground and I kind of covered my wife and I think another person. But I - I lost it after that. I don't...

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

JM: And, uh, where did they take you in the car?

[REDACTED] To here.

JM: To Desert Springs.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

JM: Okay. Um, how many people were with you?

[REDACTED] Well, there - we had nine of us total.

JM: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] But the rest of them were back at the chairs on the lawn.

JM: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] My wife and I were standing up towards the front of the stage.

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] But they came to the car there were just four of us, the driver, the girl that was shot, me, and my wife.

JM: Are they all accounted for?

[REDACTED] All my family is, yes.

JM: Okay, has anyone else came up here to talk to you?

[REDACTED] Um, from detectives?

JM: Yeah.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Um, no, but the FBI, the, uh, I think there was a...

JM: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] ...violent crime though that's been here.

JM: Okay. Is there anything else that you think is important that you think we should know?

[REDACTED] Um, not really. I mean, we - nobody knew where it was coming from. I heard somebody yell, "It's coming from the speakers." Um, and just, you know...

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] ...but...

JM: Do you have any other questions?

DK: Let me see.

[REDACTED] ...but it's...

JM: Do you remember...

[REDACTED] ...it's...

JM: ...who put you in the car or anything?

[REDACTED] No, just a bunch of people were staging in that...

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] ...that parking lot. Some of 'em were EMTs, some were - said they were paramedics. Some said that they were just helping out. I - I don't know.

JM: Okay.

[REDACTED] I really don't know (unintelligible).

DK: Okay, this, uh, interview is gonna be under Event# 171001-3519. Detective Koop, P# 4882, uh, and Detective McLemore, P# 139...

JM: 14.

DK: ...14. We're at Desert Springs Hospital. It's the 3rd of October, 2017 and the interview started at approximately 1727 hours.

JM: And it's now 1735 hours. Thank you. Appreciate your time.

?: Okay. And where were you at - at - standing in the concert?

[REDACTED] Um, we were standing just to the right of the sound stage.

?: So if you're facin' the concert...

[REDACTED] Uh, if you're facin' the concert, or...

?: The stage.

[REDACTED] ...the main stage, we're on the right side of the center booth where all the bars and stuff are.

?: Okay, so you're closest to the bar?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

?: Okay. And were you right up at the stage, were you in the middle or towards the back?

[REDACTED] Like, we were right in the...

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

?: Okay.

[REDACTED] And then, uh, yeah, so we were right there, when first saw it or heard it, thought it was fireworks, thought that someone was just bein' dumb and brought fireworks in, saw some smoke behind me.

?: Uh-huh.

[REDACTED] Just like from dust kicking up I guess, um, I just thought that's where the fireworks went off from. And then - and then we heard it again, it was a little longer this time so it kinda more suspicious, everyone started dropping down, as if it was gunshots and we were like, "All right, maybe this is a lot more serious than it is." Uh, after that second time I think, only after it started again, a third - that's when the performer went off stage, so that's when everyone just started freaking out.

?: What were a- what are people sayin' to you?

[REDACTED] Um...

?: Or what are they sayin' around you or...

[REDACTED] Everyone was just yellin', "It's gunshots - this way."

?: Gunshots? Okay. Yeah. And then, and so we pretty much got down every time we heard it, started running back as fast as we could without getting trampled on.

?: Right.

[REDACTED] Uh, we - pretty much just every time we heard somethin', got down 'cause s- hopefully that would help.

?: Right.

[REDACTED] And then, at one point I turned back, look towards Mandalay, just kind in that direction because I heard it was him from a break.

?: Right.

[REDACTED] Uh, saw like, slashing lights on pretty much halfway up the building.

?: Uh-huh.

[REDACTED] From the nozzle, the gun.

?: Okay.

[REDACTED] And, uh, just pretty much did what we could to...

?: Where - where did you - whereabouts did you get hit, was it right away, or d- as it as you were tryin' to get out?

[REDACTED] It was as we were tryin' to get out, maybe like three minutes in.

?: Okay. And where exactly where you when you were - when you were struck, were you...

[REDACTED] (Unintelligible)...

?: ...already at the fence?

[REDACTED] We were starting to run backwards.

?: Okay.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Ended up going more towards the bar, so we were pretty much right up along the fence. And then I just felt sharp pain in my hip, immediately knew I got hit, took a couple steps, and my feet were just like, givin' up on me.

?: Yeah.

[REDACTED] Crunched, I knew it was broken right there.

?: Oh.

[REDACTED] Um, and then at that point we - I don't even remember, but I think we pretty much just tried to inch our way out. At one point she was - gave me a piggy back right out, to get behind the big center bar area.

?: And at what point did you get a ride to the hospital?

[REDACTED] A long time after.

?: A- a time, did you go someplace and were like...

[REDACTED] Yeah.

?: ...sta- at a station where everybody was at and AMR came there and...

[REDACTED] Yeah, so, uh, people finally caught on to the fact that I couldn't move at all, um, they carried me off to the medic tent, and that was pretty far back from what I remember, um, went to the medic tent, gave me IV, told m- tu- like, do a turn to get on my wound, and I just kinda sat there waiting for, I wanna say close to half a hour.

[REDACTED] Um, pretty much, I just didn't wanna believe it was true, and then I saw the lights coming from the building...

?: Uh-huh.

[REDACTED] ...and it just looked too eerily like...

?: Yeah.

[REDACTED] ...a gunshot.

?: Uh-huh.

[REDACTED] And, still tried to convince myself it wasn't true, then I got hit, found blood, that's when I really decided...

?: Okay. Was there anything that - that - that drew your attention to this whole thing that you saw was weird, you know, either in the crowd before it happened, or while you guys were tryin' to escape, or?

[REDACTED] Um, not like, weird, he pretty much like, said everything, like, I didn't think it was fireworks, I thought it was like, firecrackers...

?: Uh-huh.

[REDACTED] ...and I thought it was coming through the crowd, so the whole time I thought the gunshots were like, on the floor and not like, from the air.

?: Right.

[REDACTED] Um, I tho- yeah, I thought it was like, a part of like, the performance or something because it wasn't for a little bit later until, like, the whole scre- or like the whole stage just like, went black, and that's like, when everyone just started running and we were like, okay, shit we gotta get outta here, I guess. Um, and then, yeah, like you said, it was just duck and cover whenever they came by, and like, we did it a few times then at one point I was like, "All right, we need to like, go, we need to get up, like," and he was like, "I can't, I just got shot," and then I was like, "Oh, fu- okay."

?: So you could say that under pressure.

number [REDACTED] On the night of October 1, [REDACTED] had been checked into, uh, the rooms at the Mandalay Bay. Uh, he had room numbers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Uh, during the active shooter investigation. Now this will be in reference to the active shooter investigation that occurred on 10-1-17 at 2208 hours which occurred on the 32nd floor of the Mandalay Bay. Uh, can you state your name for me please?

[REDACTED] My name is [REDACTED]

BP: Oh [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Yes sir.

BP: I apar- 'pologize about that. Um, and you understand this is being recorded?

[REDACTED] Yes sir.

BP: Okay. Can you tell me what happened the night of October 1st?

[REDACTED] It started, you know, every night early. Uh, we, um - the, uh, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were backstage with us for early with my wife and the baby goes to bed at 7 o'clock central time. So it's 5 o'clock at this time. Baby went back before dinner. I performed right before [REDACTED] I think. Uh, he went on at 9:35. I went on at 9:00 pm. Um, did my show, walked offstage, took my ears out, hand it to the guys just, like, a everyday show that we do. Walked off stage and went to find my wife. She was sittin' there with friends and before we walked back up on stage, like, we use - every do - every night I asked, "Can we just sit down for a minute?" 'Cause that was my - that was my 10th show in three days. I was just tired. And, uh, seriously a minute later, two minutes later we heard just three small - and nobody knew what they were.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

And then - then we fou- then we heard, like, a - a burst and it still didn't kinda hit us. It didn't resonate to us. Just - and people were sayin' that it was, like, electrical wire hittin' the ground. Some people were sayin' it was fireworks but I know we can't shoot fireworks at 9 o'clock, 10 o'clock at night whatever in Downton Las Vegas. And, um, and then you hear, "Get down - get down - get down - get down - get down." And - and, you know, I - I grabbed the people with us and we went to the ground. Security then came and said, "Get behind the busses." And we - we ran. I grabbed my wife and we sat behind the second bus cl- close - the first bus closest to the stage, the second bus facing the street. So there was a white bus and a maroon bus. We were behind the maroon bus layin' down with a group of people. Um, and, um, personal body guard walked off stage and said, "Everyone with us come." Grabbed me and my wife. Threw us up on the maroon bus and we laid in the floor. And, uh, in - in the (unintelligible) and it seemed, like, the shooting was goin' on forever. I mean, nine, ten minutes. I don't - I don't really know how long or anything but it seemed, like, it was goin' on forever. And we - so we laid on the bus as long as we can and, you know, tryin' to figure out how the baby is and I thought he was in the safest place in the entire world but he was actually in [REDACTED] and the nanny was in [REDACTED]. And she said she can't get in to get [REDACTED] because the keys were deactivated. And obvious reasons you guys have to turn the keys off to make sure the doors are shut and, um, so we're - this goes on for a while and - and we're - we're on a bus - we're in - we're on the bus layin' down and it said that the 32nd floor - I get a text saying, "The 32nd floor has been evacuated from the Mandalay Bay and that there were multiple shooters. And - and I sent a, you know, text my buddy. I said, "My f- my kids in [REDACTED]" Um, and - and this is - and there's so many - so there's 10 or 15 minutes between text 'cause it took so long to get out. Um - um, I - I assume he was Vegas PD - walked on our tour bus and said, "Listen everyone. You're gonna follow me. We're getting off this bus and we're gonna - we're gonna run as fast as we can. Keep a good pace. Nobody get hurt. Keep your head down and let's run." We get off the bus. I th- I wanna say there's 16 of us on that bus and I - 'cause he made us countdown and r- and report our names. Then we ran off the bus back towards the stage and we ran between the stage and the front barricades.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] Um, and he just - and he - he was - whoever that guy was - was a champ. He was just calm. He said, "Keep your head down. Keep a good pace." And he was just - I just remember there's just bodies everywhere. It was just - it was just terrible. We - and we ran through the venue at a - at an angle but not through the main venue obviously. But through the - between the - like, I said between the - I don't know what the little railing of the barricades in the main stage are.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] And they put us in a house across the street and, uh - it - it's, like, the house had no electricity. It's, like, a complete trap house. I don't - I don't have no - it's one of those houses you drive past and you're, like, "How is that still in Las Vegas?" Kinda house.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] And it was just full of people and there was, like, blood on the floor and then the people we're with were, "We can't stay here. We gotta go." And we literally jumped in the back of a Toyota pickup. At that time our group got split up. It was me and my wife and three other ladies. And one of the lady had a two-month old child that I was carryin' in the - in the, uh, baby car seat.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] Jumped in the back of that truck and the truck takes us to the McCarran Airport sign and drop - tells us to, "Get out." So we get outta there. We hide behind the McCarran International sign and there were people there screamin', "There's - there's fo- shots fired at New York, New York, MGM." You know, it was just - just people spewin' at the mouth. And, uh, I wanna say it was Excalibur they were sayin' there's shooters and - and we didn't know where to go. I mean, we - all I know is that we could - if we could see the hotels they can see us.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] So we ran through, like, a rocky gravel area into a parking lot. But it was the helicopter place. The - the Canyon something. Um, I'm sorry I don't have the name. I can't...

BP: It's okay

[REDACTED] ...(unintelligible). But it's the Canyon Helicopter Tours. We went in there and got in a back room. Got our crew and in there for a few minutes - five or six minutes. And we get a - we got a text - my wife got a text from the lady that was takin' care of the child that said, "Police came. They took me and [REDACTED] and we're runnin' down the hall. Are you - they - they escorted us down the hall, down the elevator."

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] "They moved us to the south - south of the Mandalay Bay at the Harley Davidson Center."

BP: Okay.

[REDACTED] And so [REDACTED] my wife [REDACTED] said, "Okay let us know." They said w- that we were waiting on busses to be evacuated. At this time (unintelligible) to, "Please let us know." And this - and this is - this had been probably half hour, 45 minutes after the shooting stopped. They took us from the Canyon Helicopter place and put us in busses. And we got in a bus and two more of our friends that we were lookin' for were in the front seat of the bus. They take the bus - seem waited forever and ever and ever. Come to find out they were clearin' a path through the tarmac 'cause there was people in the tarmac I guess runnin' in the - runnin' into bunkers and stuff.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] And, uh, they take us to the Thomas & Mack Center and we pull up the Thomas Mack Center and get out. We don't go into the Thompson Mack. It was just chaos. People runnin' in...

BP: Yeah.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It just didn't seem, like, a smart thing to do. We sit out Thomas & Mack for probably half an hour, 45 minutes. And we were with one of the representatives from Live Nation said, "We - we've got a ride comin'. Let's stay here. Stick together." And at that time the rest of our group had made it. They're - and so there was 12 or 13 of us at this time. We got a call - a text sayin' that, "We're in a bus leavin' the Harley Davidson. It's not safe." Or too crowded or - I didn't get the text personally. It - it - I wanna say it was too crowded I think is what she said, "They're moving us again." So I - I walked up to a couple LAP- or, uh, Vegas PD and I said, "My name's [REDACTED] [REDACTED] And explained the situation, "Where will they be evacuated to?" And they said, "There's two places, town square or Thomas & Mack." So every bus that pulled up to Thomas & Mack for a solid 45 minutes, an hour - I was just s- are you - lookin' for my child. Lookin' for my kids - lookin' for my kid. L about 45 minutes later we get a text. They said they're at some bar outside of town square and I would have to get the name. And I can text my wife and ask. Um, I've never heard - I've never been over there. And what to do - what can we do. And - and I just said, "We will get a new," there was people, "We'll take you. We'll figure this out. We'll get you." And the lady was with - so the HBO or FBO - sorry. Like, F as in Frank. FBO...

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] ...said, "We got a car for you guys. Sit still." And at that time it was about ten minutes later - they pulled up, put us in this van and we - we started drivin'. And my wife said, "Sir do - have you ever heard of," This - I - I, like, I need to get the name of the bar for you.

BP: It's no worries.

[REDACTED] At town square is it. He goes, "Yeah of course." He said, "It's a couple blocks from where we're going." And I leaned over to the van and I said, "Fellas can we stop and get my child?" And this was a solid two, two and a half hours after I found out he's been - I don't know any details at this time. I just know...

BP: Yeah.

[REDACTED] ...he's been taken out. And, uh, and so where we were supposed to go right originally...

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] ...we went left two blocks and he was on the side of the street with the nanny. Um, the guy in the front seat jumped out, got my kid and - and we, uh, and he literally just jumped in my arms. I just held him and held him - and held him. Then we went back to the private airport. Um - um...

BP: Yeah Signature.

[REDACTED] Signature.

BP: (Unintelligible).

[REDACTED] Yes sir

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] They had a private room back there for us 'cause we had a - we had a couple privates lined up to get out. And we sit in the back room. We actually - we actually had a time to take off but we couldn't get everybody there so it pushed off to the next day.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] So we sit there 'till about 6 o'clock in the mornin'. Then they moved us over to a place called The Mansion in MGM.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] Just let us do a little sleep and we asked, um - I said, "What happened - what happened?" She said, "I went to get the baby." 'Cause I asked her to move the baby to the opposite side. 'Cause if the gunshots are going towards I want him on the other side.

BP: Mm-hm.

[REDACTED] She said, "I couldn't get in. I couldn't get a text message." She said ch- "Alarms were going off and went back in the room. Called security and while I was callin' security the door kicked open, guns pointed." You know, and the whole situation. She put her hands up, turned around. They patted - they tore the room down, make sure everything was good. She said, "There's a baby across the hall." And about that time the door kicked in over there and they brought - well my son [REDACTED] out. Handed the baby to [REDACTED] and two officers which I thank for all my life. They - one was in front of her, one's behind her and they said, "Run. Stay between us." Put us in elevator, put her down and put her with a group of people outside of Mandalay.

BP: 'Kay.

BP: Yeah.

[REDACTED] And, uh, and still - and that's where I'm at. I'm still waiting for my stuff backstage in order to - so I can go home.

BP: Yeah. Well sometimes our - our - I know it's difficult to try and focus on and - so I'm just - so you - you're - you're [REDACTED] that night. You're actually at the Route 51 50...

[REDACTED] Route 91...

BP: ...fest...

[REDACTED] Yes.

BP: Route (unintelligible) 91 festival. And so you [REDACTED] goin' on.

[REDACTED] I do that every night. That's my full time job. And I played that festival every night this - this week.

BP: Yeah. So as you're performing you come off stage, you go backstage. Um, you take off your - your headphones and your wife's back there. Um, you sit down for a few minutes....

[REDACTED] Mm-hm.

BP: Okay. So - so [REDACTED] so I'm the stage and I'm looking out.

[REDACTED] So I'm at your level.

BP: You're backstage...

BP: Okay. So you're left - you're left side backstage so you're closest to - you're closer to Las Vegas Boulevard - Boulevard would be on you left...

[REDACTED] Yes sir.

[REDACTED] Mm-hm.

BP: Um, was it...

[REDACTED] It wasn't that loud. That's what I'm sayin' to you. It wasn't, like, a...

BP: Yeah.

[REDACTED] It wasn't the - when they started they got louder...

BP: Yeah.

[REDACTED] ...seemed like. But it went - at the first it was a - sound, like, a little pop thing, like, you throw on the ground.

We didn't - we didn't know where it was comin' from or what..

BP: Yeah.

[REDACTED] ...it was. When - and then lady next to us said her husband's a damn electrician. It was a damn fire cable - or it was an electric cable hittin' the ground.

BP: Yeah. So that was - and then that - the time of from the time you first heard the shots 'till the time of the last shots was about 10 minutes?

[REDACTED] I would - I'd - I'd guess probably nine, ten minutes. I walked [REDACTED] and sat down. The only reason I know that exact time is because I was, like, "Dang Jason was late tonight."

BP: Okay. And then the shooting started when we got our first calls a little after 10:00.

HR: That was the right side, we were on the left side.

JM: Okay. Um, what did you see?

HR: I didn't see anything, really. I just heard a lot of gunshots, people running, people started trampling over each other, we just stayed still for a minute and then we started hearin' more gunshots so we got down. I - I covered, I jumped on top of her, that's when I got shot in the leg.

JM: Okay.

HR: And after that it was just a buncha people helping me, they grabbed me and carried me.

CR: Thank God they...

JM: Do you know who helped you?

CR: No, I wish I knew.

HR: I don't know.

JM: What kinda care did they have?

CR: They had a Suburban...

HR: Well we were inside...

JM: Okay.

HR: And then he started shooting again, and so they said move back, but I - I told him, "I can't move."

CR: 'Cause his bone was...

HR: I mean my...

CR: ...sticking out.

HR: ...my leg was totally shattered...

CR: ...so he couldn't even go nowhere.

HR: ...so.

DK: It went through the other foot?

HR: It went through my right leg...

JM: Uh-huh.

HR: ...and then it hit my left leg.

DK: Okay.

HR: And the left leg's the one that - that's shattered.

JM: S- so they carried you out, and then you guys got behind the cop car when...

HR: (Unintelligible)...

CR: Yeah, and then the...

HR: ...and then a cop...

HR: And that's when the band went off stage, and we knew, it wasn't part of the show.

JM: Oh, so they came up, they dragged you out, you got to the cop car, and then they dragged you from there to a guy in a Suburban?

HR: I...

CR: In a Suburban.

HR: The - the police officer said, "Move back."

JM: Uh-huh.

HR: He was gonna back the car up, so I told him I couldn't move, so the police officer actually picked me up over his shoulder and took me across the street, this was...

DETAILS:

While attending the RT 91 festival on Oct. 1, 2017 at approximately 10:00 pm I thought what was fireworks went off during the Jason Aldean set. Then another popping sound thinking the speaker had blown the stage area went dark we soon realized that those were gun shots. Not knowing where they were coming from myself, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] hit the ground. We heard rapid fire with no idea of how many shooters there were, unable to determine where the shots were coming from, seeing people running to exit. Hearing people yell for medics. We stayed down covering our selves with our chairs so that we would not get stepped on. More shots fired the person behind us had been hit. I heard them needing something 'to stop the bleeding and giving out vitals. There was a lady in front of us she said she had gotten shot. We asked her to lay down come closer so we could check her. [REDACTED] couldn't see that she was badly injured and the shots started again. The shots this time sounded different and we thought they were getting closer. Putting our heads down and lying still and quite we waited until the shots stopped. The lady we had checked was no longer next to us and the person they were treating behind me was gone as well. During the shootings we had people ask if we needed medical and if we were ok. We had checked our selves periodically to make sure we had not been shot and had made the decision to stay put until we felt it was safe to flee. After the shots had subsided for about 3-5 minutes the 3 of us felt it was time to try and exit. Keeping low and together we made our way through debris, chairs through the open area. Passing people who were being attended to by the Budlight cooler, stepping over broken glass from the bar area, money all over the ground and more injured people with security telling us to exit this way and to head to the Tropicana Hotel.

We followed the crowd to the back side of the Tropicana where a hotel person was showing us where to enter. Wounded people, people who had been separated from friends and family lined the hallways. Panic struck again when the fire alarm went off and we were getting information that the hotel was on lockdown because there was suspected shooters in area outside. We decided to hunker down in the bathroom. We eventually made it to the 17th floor where [REDACTED] daughter had a room and my husband picked us up the following morning after taking a cab to Circus Circus, and much confusion on where to go and how to get off the strip.

I HAVE READ THIS STATEMENT AND I AFFIRM TO THE TRUTH AND ACCURACY OF THE FACTS CONTAINED HEREIN. THIS STATEMENT WAS COMPLETED AT (LOCATION) [REDACTED]

JS: And your name sir?

SR: [REDACTED]

JS: [REDACTED]?

SR: Yeah.

JS: What's your date of birth?

SR: [REDACTED]

JS: And you were at the concert with her?

SR: Yes.

JS: Okay. So, basically like I said, if you could just kinda - so we know, uh, kinda where you were, and then what happened after and how we ended up back here.

MM: Um, Jason Aldean had just started playing, we were towards - pretty close to the front on the right side of the stage...

SR: Like 30' back maybe.

MM: Yeah.

JS: Okay.

MM: ...pretty packed but it was - everybody was excited, they were like moving to get as close as possible, everybody was being good. Um, he started singing the we've heard a couple of pops...

SR: Thought it was fireworks at first.

MM: ...um, people started screaming, the guy next to us was like, "Oh, I - I was in the service, don't worry about it, calm down, there's - there's fireworks." And then, um...

SR: And then the second...

MM: ...a couple people sounded like they were crying out in pain, so everybody just started dropping to the floor.

?: (Unintelligible) sorry.

MM: And, um, guys started jumping on top of their girlfriends or their friends, and people around us started to tell us when to - to run and to move and, uh, yeah. I remember, um, I stopped for a second, then the guy behind me pushed me 'cause I needed to

DETAILS:

I heard something like fireworks, I kept hearing more bangs & they were coming faster. After they got faster I jumped to the floor people started running everywhere & they started stepping all over me, so I got. I saw everyone running & heard many gunshots & the screams of the people while I was running for shelter inside a storage unit. I found 4 coworkers in the unit & I started to pray. We were all hiding in there & could hear the screams of the people. I thought I was going to die because we seemed to be so close to the shooting. People were running all around me so I ran to the storage unit. I ducked down in the corner so hard that when I tried to move, I couldn't from the pain. Some people had also tripped over me and my coworkers. I haven't been able to sleep because I have six kids & I was so scared that I was going to die. I called my son so he could know I was okay at the moment, but I hear the screams of the people & the shots from the gun. Once the shooting ended, our boss came & told us to run, when I ran I saw someone who was dead on the floor in the street & I also saw someone being held by a group of people & cursing him because he had been shot. I ran to a church & I saw two more people who were shot but I also saw police. There I saw people place one of the injured into a white car & I also saw the family of one of the other injured people throw her over their shoulder to take her out of there. A man touched my shoulder & told me that I should run to the MGM because we might not be safe in the church. I ran out to Tropicana House.

Event #: 171001003519

I saw two of my coworkers out there. While I was running to Tropicana, I passed by a woman's body. She appeared to be dead because there was blood everywhere, & there was blood all over where I was running. There were many people on the floor & some of them were injured, ~~and~~ I was able to sit down, people placed an injured woman on my lap so I started comforting her for about an hour, massaging her head, shoulders, & her wrists until she began to respond & breathe normally, because she was previously unconscious. Once she regained consciousness, someone placed a pill under her tongue & took her away in a wheelchair. After being there for an hour, I went to the evacuation site where I found my coworkers. Around 8am, my son came to pick up me and my coworkers, my son's name is [REDACTED]. I can still hear the people screaming & crying ~~in the~~ throughout the day.

artista, y creí que ya la gente no enteraría pero me equivoqué pues decían a quienes que mi mamá está grabando y cuando quedó a peo no se acuerdan personas en la escena de acción de la pantalla en el ambiente me di cuenta para agarrar más papel de mano y como un helicóptero y después otros cosas fuertes. Por -- Por
 -- los me dieron la atención y volví a la pantalla me dije que esperaba que con estos y helicópteros que me esperaba de él estaba grabando y se veía como muchos puntos por lo que estaba ocupada, como cuando se veía el papel de mano al abrir el helicóptero a la pantalla. Y ya estaba sobre la escena la pantalla la chica que estaba parada por donde se veía se agachó al piso y dijo están tirando es por tenerlos que en la puerta las personas que estaban en los toriles abrieron sus puertas y se empezaron a gritar y ya las dije que el reportero no no se podía salir de ahí. Las personas de la escena se encerraron y después se empezó a hacer ruido de la escena no sabían que pensaban que había se abrió la puerta y me dijo una chica me dijo tenía al niño me llevaron con ella y pasó después la puerta ya no había nadie pero no quedaban muchas la otra persona dijeron vamos a salir y las dije no esperen aquí estamos seguros. Cuando salió el niño me dijo y luego otra dijo y no se acuerdan más. Por lo que en colorado están las personas muy bien cuando creí que se había acabado nos dijeron salir por la policía las que se querían no se como por fin la última era salir pero las chicas con una regla que ya
 por fin la expresión de sus caras era muy diferente ellas que habían estado muy nerviosas y después de angustia y después de miedo de pensar y temeramos algo. Luego otra refugio y una persona nos pusimos abajo de una banca que todavía estaba en pie y cada uno de nosotros tenía ese momento no sé que estaba pensando en esto bien lo que los chicos. Por lo que cuando estábamos por me como me acordaba y dije en donde está la cámara que está frente a mí una muy buena y cuando dije que algo se movió en esta persona parada. Le grité que se fuera con una de las chicas siguió por el camino como pudo a otra parte cuando llegó a la refugio le dije a la vez que cuando se de ella lejos y que se fuera su voluntario después de me sacaron por la ventana y me di cuenta que me estaba saliendo alisí como si yo me estuviera a cuando se fue buscar la salida y cuando me dio cuando vino de paricio cuando desapareció me se como por en este momento que tenía que organizarlo tiempo.

unos pasaron junto a nosotros con la cara casi obstruida de un lado otra en silla de ruedas y una llave de sangre nos detuvieron a ayudarnos otros gente estaban bien pero sus piernas no les respondían les ayudamos a salir pero nuevamente nos refugiamos yo oía que habían otros de nosotros desaparecidos pues la gente nos empujaba yo deje detrás de ellos a unos los traían hasta salió a la calle había patrullas llenas de personas
y mucha gente gritando llorando y había mas cuerpos traídos en la calle y a algunos los subieron al la bandeja no sabía si estaban vivos o muertos yo solo oía sangre algunos corrieron y nos dejaron gracias por estar conmigo otros no respondieron nos fuimos al estacionamiento y almorzamos de los caros se agasape yo sola quería gritar a llorar pero sabía que tenía que estar acorda por si alguien me necesitaba ahí corra mi esposa se fue a buscar la maleta porque ahí traíamos las llaves del carro le hable a mi hija x9 ella siempre de las noticias y no se fuera a espantar y dentro de exterior
bien cuando transitábamos por la calle Koval Lane había ya muchos cuerpos traídos y las camionetas particulares se los estaban llevando después nos entramos en Tropicana los subieron a las ambulancias pero era un caos todo ese caos y saben lo que son igual que nosotros cuando ayuda cuanto solidarios en esos momentos no importa si nos respondieron
cuando no todos estábamos en el mismo canal hora después cuando llegué a casa de una de mis heras les conte y me dijeron no mami solo hay dos muertos y 24 heridos y yo dije no hija yo los vi yo ovi cuerpos y ahora si me preguntan que fue lo que pasó y no puedo dormir pues eso es lo que imagino esos ruidos de balas como cuando el viento la ciudad no se ve se ve 25 años

NJ: We were about parallel to there.

SS: Okay.

NJ: To begin with.

SS: Okay.

NJ: The - the first - or, the concert stopped for getting ready for Jason Aldean and then we moved again. Our friends stayed at that same spot. I would say that we were probably 30 yards west of that center railing gate and maybe another 30 yards away from the stage.

SS: Okay.

NJ: So, that's where we ending up being.

SS: Okay.

NJ: When all of this occurred.

NJ: Uh, no. Not where we were at.

SS: You just sat on the ground.

AJ: (Unintelligible).

NJ: Yeah, she just sat on the ground 'cause her legs were tired.

SS: Okay.

NJ: Just waiting for the show to start.

SS: Sure. Um, at that point, uh, when did you realize something was going on?

AJ: Well, first we heard some noises but we weren't sure if they were, like, firecrackers or they were - earlier, we saw people pulling, like, pop-its with the confetti.

SS: Okay.

AJ: So, it was hard to say whether it was that or something else. And it wasn't until he turned and saw a man collapse with a bullet to the head that we realized that it was more serious and started to take cover.

NJ: That was about the time - once I saw that gentleman s- s- go down...

NJ: That's kinda when - you looking around and Jason Aldean had ran off and then we started to really - really hear, "Get out" and more or less.

SS: Right.

NJ: And, um, yeah. So, more or less once we - once people started kinda getting frantic...

SS: Right.

NJ: Then we kinda...

SS: And which exit did you try to egress out of?

NJ: So, what had happened was we were standing there - obviously it started going on to the moment - the moment of, "Oh, fuck." We dropped. I - I thought that she was hit before we dropped but she says that we dropped first.

AJ: It was as we were moving...

NJ: We were laying next - I was laying next to her. She - so, shooter was on that side 'cause that's the side of, uh, Mandalay Bay. Is that the MGM?

SS: That, yeah.

NJ: The Mandalay Bay...

SS: Mandalay Bay would be to, uh, that's the Luxor.

AJ: It was...

TP: ...she must have gotten shot.

AJ: Well, he - he was trying to pull me to safety so we were trying to head, you know, towards the barricades that keep him from the stage and just off that direction. And as we were moving is when I felt I got hit.

NJ: Okay. So, what we did was - so, whenever that happened - I - I don't really remember when she got shot or what. It was just more of a (unintelligible).

SS: Right.

NJ: After that happened, we stayed for a minute, waited for gunfire - hopefully for him to just do whatever his thing was or at least stop.

SS: Right.

NJ: Soon as I heard a little bit of silence, told her, "We gotta get up". Did was, got up, and ran to that metal gate.

SS: Right.

NJ: I hopped over. She got about half way up. I drug her over. We went - we stayed there for a second. Went from there down the aisle to the stage, took a left.

SS: Right.

NJ: Trying to get medic help for her. Um, there was another gentleman that was a little worse off.

SS: Mm-hm.

NJ: So, they were trying to attend to him.

SS: Right.

NJ: We moved from - from this concrete barrier that was on the left side of the stage - maybe midway right the stage - we moved from there to the back entrance. So, were. Sorry. We sat there for a minute or two. Then we moved behind the stage off to the left where they had a, uh, an opening for vehicles and stuff - for stage crew and stuff like that. Found a concrete barrier and a forklift back there. There was some gentleman back there. So, I tucked her behind the concrete barrier and I stayed with her the whole entire time trying to keep pressure on her wound.

SS: Okay.

NJ: Um, trying to get help. People were trying to help as much as they could. Finally, I got somebody to bring me a stretcher. I got her on a stretcher. Me and another gentleman pushed her down onto that back road and we, uh, we took a left and, uh, we went down a ways, uh, alongside of the road and there was just a random gentleman that just happened to be driving by in a black - a dark blue dodge pickup and, uh, he - he let us in. She hopped into the backseat. Um, two, maybe three, people injured got into the bed of the truck. One gentleman that had something wrong with a kneecap hopped in the front. Um, trying to get out of there was obviously pretty frantic.

SS: Sure.

NJ: We - he got on it. We did what we had to do to get here. Followed some ambulances.

SS: Okay.

NJ: And got here.

AJ: Mm-mm. No.

NJ: Fuck no, I honestly - I honestly - I thought it was on the ground. I thought there were people on the ground firing - just - laying down, you know, I - I - I f- I could - 'cause I'm a hunter, a shooter. I'm an advocate of guns. You could hear that it was obviously coming from street side. So, I knew that - it was to stay away from that side. Didn't know where. Didn't even - I mean, I - I might have took a quick glance but - shit, I - I mean the adrenaline was just kinda like blur and it was like, "Okay. Shit, what do we do now?"

TP: Okay. And you didn't actually see the shots? You heard someone shooting at ya.

AJ: Right.

NJ: No. Right, nothing.

TP: That's it.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED] (ZM)

ZM: I was at the event on Sunday and I - me and my girlfriend went to go get Dippin' Dots and after we bought 'em we were walking back to our seats. Uh, the music stopped and all we heard was popping and I knew exactly at that moment that it wasn't good so me and her ran back to the seats. We grabbed what we could. We were taking off running and I felt a sting in my back. Dropped to the ground instantly and I look over to my right and one of the guys that we went to the concert with - he's on the ground too and he says, "I can't move," and he's like, "Get outta here." So I turned to her and I said, "I can't move. You need to run." But she didn't leave me. She brought me to the medic tent. I was in the medic tent. They said I wasn't shot and I told her to just keep running. That it doesn't matter what happens to me as long as she's out safe. And so she took off running and they kicked me out of the medic tent and I took off running and we ended up making it behind a big dumpster and I - I tripped and fell. I was surrounded by people. We were - we were hud- crowded there. They were all using my phone to call loved ones and everything and I had them call her. She was at the Hooters Hotel and then they escorted me to this curb where they started, like, putting pressure on my wound and then we waited there 'til the ambulance came and they picked me up.

TG: Okay. And then from there you just went to the hospital here?

ZM: Yeah.

TG: Oh. Okay. Um, I mean is there anything else you can think of or - or add at all or is that pretty much it?

The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by DETECTIVE J. SMITH (JS), P# 13218, on 10-05-17 at 2122 hours.

[REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED] address [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

LM: Uh-huh.

JS: [REDACTED] this is r- reference, uh, active shooter call under Event# 1701 - I'm sorry, 171001-3519, uh, interview is takin' place at Sunrise Hospital, today's date is October 5th, 2017 at 2122 hours. Okay. So, basically, uh, it's my understanding you guys were both from [REDACTED] right? So basically, we're just lookin' for how you guy- where you guys were inside the venue, uh, if there's anything that you remember or anything that stands out, and then how you guys ended up here at Sunrise Hospital, okay? So whoever wants to start, it's gonna be fine.

SM: Um, so we were stage right, closest to Mandalay Bay up in the front section of the grass area by the f- stage.

JS: Okay.

SM: Um, when the shots started goin' off the first time, I mean, we didn't think anything of it, we just thought they were maybe fire- fireworks. Um, and then before you knew it, um, Jason Aldean was running off the stage and everyone was ducking and being pushed to the floor and takin' cover. Um, my sister was screaming, you know, "I've been shot - I've been shot," and we looked, and her arm was just gushing in blood and then my mom, we saw was laying face down, um, in the grass, and a retired Fire Fighter had crawled his way over and helped flip her over and saw the gunshot wound and asked if there was anything that we had that he could press against her wound for pressure. Um, and he told us that we had to leave if we wanted to live we had to get out. At that point [REDACTED] and my sister were together, I don't remember them leaving and then [REDACTED] and I stayed behind with my mom and the Fire Fighter. Um, he promised me that he would stay with my mom, that he wouldn't let anything happen to her, but we would do my mom more damage than good by staying there and he just - he yelled - and he yelled for us to leave, so you know, she grabbed my hand and we left. Um, we went behind the Budweiser stand where there were people, uh, crouched down hiding, um, the shots had paused for a minute, but when they started happening again everyone scrambled and that's when we made our way and ran again through the exit, um, in between two cop cars. Um, I remember people just being wheelbarrowed and carried out. Um, and the cops were pushin' people down in between, telling 'em, "Get down - get down," um, I think the shooting had gone off again and we had crossed the street and hid behind the power box and that's when, um, at that point we had gotten word that my sister and [REDACTED] were at the Tropicana, but we had heard that there might be possibly a - a sh- an open shooter there. Um, so we started making our way down there, and, um, we were told that they were tryin' to get everybody into Hooters. Um, but I was determined to find my sister, and my boyfriend's sister so, um, we met a- another family, another couple, husband and wife, who took us in and again tried to get us to go down to Hooters, but when I was adamant about finding my sister, they took [REDACTED] and I and told us they would go into the Tropicana and help find her. Um, and that's when we were on lockdown inside the employee back entrance, the hallways, um, I don't know how long that was. Um, from there we were taken into one of the ballrooms in the Tropicana, where we were on lockdown 'till 4 o'clock in the morning. Um, my boyfriend had come down to the scene, um, I called him right when it happened, uh, I don't know what time he got there, um, by time I saw him and [REDACTED] saw him we were in the ballroom at the Tropicana. Uh, so when we were released about 4 o'clock in the morning, we made our way back to the car and went down to police headquarters where I was in contact with my dad and we were there waiting to find out, um, where my mom was, we couldn't find her, we didn't know what happened or if she was even alive at that point. Um.

LAS VEGAS METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT

JS: So we have no idea how your mom, [REDACTED] got here?

SM: No.

JS: Okay.

SM: Um, form what I heard from [REDACTED] is he stayed with her the entire time, um, they took, uh, knocked down one of the fences and it took about six to eight people, um, laid her on top and walked her out, I believe somewhere close to the MGM, I'm not 100% sure. He did not personally put her on a car an ambulance, um, after that, he'd gone back in to see what else he could do to help. Um, so I don't know how she physically got down here, um, but I know that he stayed with her. I n- I know that she was one of the last ones out, according to him, because of the location of how far in we were.

JS: Uh-huh.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED] (SM)

SM: Um, so from the police headquarters we got word, um, that my mom may be at UMC, we went down to UMC and we couldn't find her, and then we had got word that she may be at Sunrise and we came down here, and then apparently got confirmation she was at UMC, but then someone came and found us, um, here at Sunrise Hospital while we were here and brought us to my mom.

JS: Okay.

SM: So...

JS: Now...

SM: ...that's how we ended up here.

JS: Uh, [REDACTED] you said that when she got shot in the arm, she got some stitches, what hospital did she go to?

SM: Sunrise.

JS: Oh, and so she was here as well?

SM: She was - yeah, um, I do know she was in an ambulance, um, with another victim, um, we were separated, um, her and [REDACTED] have left before [REDACTED] and I and, um, so I didn't get in touch with my sister until the next morning.

JS: Okay. [REDACTED] is there anything to that story that you think you need to add, or...

LM: No.

JS: ...anything like that?

LM: That's it. That's all.

JS: Perfect. Now who is - I heard you mention, uh, who - who stayed with your mom the whole time, you s- like a [REDACTED]?

SM: [REDACTED] he was a retired Fire Fighter, um, in...

JS: Okay.

SM: ...Los Angeles.

JS: I gotcha, okay.

SM: He was just attending the concert with his girlfriend.

JS: Gotcha. Okay. Perfect. Let me get this shut off here. Okay operator, end of I- end of interview, uh, time now is 2128 hours.

EK: Okay, yeah.

TT: Um, [REDACTED] you and - you and [REDACTED] were together the entire night, correct?

EK: Yes.

TT: You guys arrived at the concert pretty much the same time, you guys all arrived and just kinda...

EK: Uh-huh.

TT: ...kinda split?

EK: Yeah, so we all arrived at the concert at the same time...

TT: Okay.

EK: ...and we were all standing together.

TT: Okay. So you guys all stayed together pretty much the entire concert?

AC: Yeah. Jason Aldean.

EK: Jason Aldean.

TT: Okay. All right. Now...

AC: He had done like, two or three songs.

TT: Okay. So, what happened?

AC: Uh, (unintelligible) first I heard something (unintelligible) firecrackers, I looked to my right...

EK: And sa...

TT: Okay.

EK: ...there was blood like in the back of her head, and whoever she was with was kneeling down next to her, yelling...

TT: Okay.

EK: ...that she was shot in the back of the head. And someone came over like right away and that's when we realized it was shooting.

TT: It wasn't firecrackers, it was shots.

EK: And it wasn't firecrackers, and...

TT: Okay.

EK: ...we dove to the ground, and, um, i- he laid on top of me and I could hear a guy next to us ta- saying, "Help her - help her, she got shot," and someone was there, like, reassuring them, and then there was a brief pause in the - the noise and that's when we s- [REDACTED] uh, (unintelligible), "Okay, we need to move," and everyone was getting up. AC: Yeah, 'cause I guess, like, when I saw the initial firecrackers, (unintelligible)
Mandalay Bay...

TT: Yeah, closer to Mandalay Bay rather than further away.

AC: Yeah, so...

EK: (Unintelligible).

AC: ...uh, e- it ended up not being where y- he was (unintelligible) but at least that's where I saw it...

TT: Uh-huh.

AC: ...so I assumed, so yeah, we ran.

EK: Away from the Mandalay Bay.

AC: Away from Mandalay Bay.

TT: Yeah.

AC: Kinda closer to the stage...

EK: No, i...

AC: ...to try and cut the angle down.

TT: Okay.

EK: Um, and so we followed the crowd through, uh, on our way there was - we heard more shots and jumped to the ground again. Um, [REDACTED] on top of me again, and then we, uh, there was another pause (unintelligible) we kept running with everyone.

Um, it was very crowded in their narrow hallways, and we were...

AC: And I think something s- like around the corner, someone came through a door (unintelligible) and then (unintelligible) turned and started running so (unintelligible)...

EK: Screaming, scattering, and so we...

AC: Ran out to the pool area (unintelligible) run there, tryin' to find a way out for a while.

TT: Okay.

EK: And then from there we - we just kept running, uh, a path back to our hotel room at the MGM Grand.

TT: Okay. As you were goin', um, did you see, um, did you see [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] at all?
Okay.

EK: We...

EK: We were focused on running getting out, we - the only way we got back to the hotel room was when we started calling out...

TT: Tryin' to see if everybody...

EK: ...people, contacting everyone...

TT: ...got out, okay. Is there anything suspicious you remember about the incident? Besides the obvious, um, somebody shooting, do you remember seeing anybody down on the ground, um, that was acting suspicious before the shooting, do you remember seein' anything?

AC: The only thing that I guess, e- she kinda pointed out to me later was, that initial firecracker burst or like, there was like, smoke coming from what was the center of the stage.

EK: And, flashes of lights that didn't look like a firecracker.

TT: Okay.

EK: And so I don't know if that was a signal to start the shooting or where he should aim in the crowd.

TT: Okay.

EK: And as far as the order of events for me, I don't remember whether it was the firecrackers and more shooting and then I saw the girl on the ground, or if it was firecrackers, girl on the ground, and then more shooting. But I know that I was still standing when I saw the - the woman on the ground with her boyfriend kneeling next to her.

TT: Okay.

EK: Uh, he's saying how she - she was shot in the head.

TT: All right.

EK: Yeah.

TT: Okay.

EK: And then the other only suspicious thing that I don't know about is when the crowd got spooked, and everyone was panicked and scattered and we just separated ourselves from the big crowd.

TT: Okay. And on that, neither of you are physically injured anywhere?

EK: No.

TT: Okay.

EK: Um, and then the blinking light in the Mandalay Bay that he saw that night...

TT: Okay.

EK: ...we had seen the night before as well, so the Mandalay Bay has like, those like, drizzly lights down the middle...

TT: Okay.

EK: And we saw that, uh, the second night of the concert, and [REDACTED] had commented on it saying that she was finding it really annoying because it was so, just out of place, because it was the only single blinking light...

TT: Yeah.

EK: ...in the building.

TT: Okay. Operator, this is gonna be the end of interview, the time is now going to be 1841 hours, uh, same people present, and, uh, same location at Sunrise Hospital, and this is going to be, um, Room [REDACTED] Thank you.

BK: And, uh, so I - I was kind of pulling her down and just as I was pulling her down she got hit in the hand. And she yelled, "My hand - my hand." And I looked at it and the finger was all hanging there so I was like, okay, like, we need to go. Like, we can't lay here, we need to go 'cause I don't know where it's coming from so I kind of stood her up and then I got hit in the back with a bunch of shrapnel but I didn't know what it was. About three or four pieces hit me in the back and I kind of froze there for a second like...

MJ: Mm-hm.

BK: ...oh, what just - like, did I get shot? Or like am I okay? And I kind of stood there and it wasn't getting any worse so I figured it was okay. Um, so I just kind of closed my hands on her hand and just booked it out of there.

RK: (Unintelligible), yeah, we saw the police to the...

((Crosstalk))

BK: Well, we started running past the beverage stands but I saw several people like who had been hit that were trying to hide underneath those stands but had been hit. And that was the way we were running. So I didn't know if we were running towards it or away from it...

MJ: Right.

BK: ...or what. Um, so we just - we kind of ran past those and I saw a police car with his lights on to the right. Uh, probably just security.

MJ: Mm-hm.

BK: Um, so I figured let's run towards them. Uh, so we did. But he was telling us to keep going like 'cause he didn't know what was going on either. Um, so we ran through and we were gonna go into the Hooter's there that was nearby.

MJ: Right.

BK: And there was a large group of people also running in there. But just as we were getting near like the whole crowd stopped, turned around and then they started stampeding the other way out of Hooter's and screaming. So we didn't know if there was somebody in there or not. So...

RK: They were saying, "Active shooter?" Do you (unintelligible)?

BK: Yeah, maybe...

MJ: So when you say Hooter's was it like a tent? Like a Hooter's tent or...

BK: No, uh...

MJ: ...like the actual casino?

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED] (RK)

RK: Yeah.

MJ: Oh, you all - you made it all the way to the casino.

BK: Well, we went to - we went to the right.

MJ: Okay.

BK: Instead of going to the left along the road there.

MJ: Right, okay.

BK: Went to the right 'cause I saw a cop car...

MJ: Sure.

BK: ...with his lights on over there so we - we ran that way and there's a big parking lot there sort of outside the festival. And then there's a big Hooter's...

MJ: Right, I know where, okay.

BK: ...casino.

MJ: So you ran pretty far. You got pretty far pretty quick then.

BK: Yeah, like I said we were...

RK: It's - yeah.

BK: ...we weren't really too close...

MJ: Yeah.

BK: ...to the stage. We were sort of in the middle of the crowd.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED] (RK)

MJ: Sure.

BK: And a lot of people were just laying down but as soon as she got hit I figured it's not safe to lay.

MJ: Right.

BK: So when we start running towards the Hooter's I figured we get in there, let's just get inside and get away. But then everybody all of the sudden just stopped and ran - started running out.

MJ: Okay.

BK: So like, okay, so, uh, we went and hid between two cars. 'Cause I'm like, I don't know where - still don't know where the shooting's coming from. And then I sort of realized that we were kind of alone. Like everybody had kind of disbursed at that point..

MJ: Mm-hm.

BK: ...so I figured it'd be safe to run now because if this guy's -- well, I could still hear it going -- if - if they're targeting people they're gonna be targeting crowds. They're not gonna be trying to pick people off.

MJ: Right.

BK: So I figured it was our best chance to - to run. Uh, so we went across the street to the MGM. We were trying to get into the main entrance but there was taxis lined up and a bunch of other stuff so I didn't wanna go in there. Um, so there's a side door sort of in an alley, and there was a security guard that was telling us that we couldn't come in. But I - there was about 12 of us that were sort of running towards this door and they had realized that she had been hit, so they're yelling at him like, "We gotta get in." And he - I think he just didn't wanna let a whole bunch of people in 'cause he doesn't know who's who.

MJ: What's going on, yeah.

BK: But when he saw that she had been hit he was like, "Okay, like, let's get her inside." So 12 of us went in. Um, ran up what, two flights of stairs to the second floor. Um, and then there's the - all the hotel rooms there.

MJ: Mm-hm.

BK: Um, at the end of the hall a guy had his door open. I think he was just trying to see what the commotion was. So about 12 of us ran into his room and just told him to shut the door, shut the blinds. Like - 'cause he still didn't understand what was going on. Um, so we did that. Uh, one of the people that was with us happened to be a - like a firefighter paramedic, which was great.

MJ: Right.

RK: Yeah.

BK: Um...

MJ: Were - the other people with you were they injured? Any other injuries?

BK: No.

RK: No.

BK: No. Um, so we got her on the bathroom floor which is sort of in the back of the room away from windows and stuff.

MJ: Mm-hm.

BK: And put pressure on everything, sort of...

RK: Wrapped it up.

BK: ...wrapped it up as best we could and then, uh, I figured we'd be there for a while.

MJ: Yeah.

BK: Obviously, um...

MJ: Now, this is when you called for medic, someone...

BK: Yeah, we called 911. At first we couldn't get through but then we did.

MJ: Yeah, (unintelligible).

BK: But they basically told us it's probably gonna be a while. Obviously, which I sort of knew. Um, and then they sort of had the news on for a while. Just sort of seeing what was going on. And then what two hours later it seemed like things were sort of starting to calm down so we called again and they said, "Okay, like, we'll try to get somebody over there." So they ended up - about another hour later somebody else came over.

MJ: Mm-hm.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

MJ: Yeah.

RK: Yeah, the security of the MGM they took us downstairs.

BK: Well, they brought the paramedics up.

RK: Did they?

BK: Yeah, or - no, I guess it was security, yeah.

RK: They put me in a wheelchair...

BK: Yeah, it was.

RK: ...they took me to like a back door.

MJ: Mm-hm.

BK: Yeah, you're right.

RK: And then they - they put a blanket around me, made sure I was okay, and then they drove me into the ambulance.

MJ: Okay, and then you came here.

BK: Yeah.

MJ: Did you get any medical attention for that?

BK: No, it was just sort of surface shrapnel, nothing...

MJ: Okay.

BK: Well, yeah, the...

((Crosstalk))

BK: ...ER doc- one of ER guys checked it.

MJ: Here?

RK: Yeah.

BK: Yeah.

MJ: Here. All right, at any point did you see where the gunfire was coming from or - okay.

BK: I had no idea. I didn't know if we were running into it.

MJ: That's terrible.

BK: ...I don't know where it was coming from. But, uh, yeah, we just got out of there. Fortunate it wasn't seven inches to the left.

MJ: Yeah.

RK: Yeah, just as we were ducking down I - yeah, it hit my hand. So I feel like if we were standing like a second later we would (unintelligible) but I felt pretty lucky.

MJ: Is there anything else?

BK: No.

MJ: All right, um, there was something else. Where are you guys staying at? What hotel were you staying at?

BK: Signature MGM.

JP: ...or October 1st, 2017, ah, at approximately 2205 hours under LVMPD Event # 171001-3519. [REDACTED] you are out here, um, part of the concert, correct?

TK: That's correct.

JP: And you're here with your wife, [REDACTED]

TK: Yes.

JP: And her last name is also [REDACTED] correct?

TK: Correct.

JP: Um, and currently [REDACTED] ah, is here at Sunrise Hospital as one of the injured victims.

TK: Yes.

JP: Um, and do you know where she got, um, shot?

TK: She suffered a single gunshot wound just above her left hip on the rear side of her back. Penetrated all the way through to her stomach where it lodged. Um, once she was here at the hospital, it was determined that she had - the bullet had gone inside, severed part of the small intestine and the upper portion of the colon. Um, while in surgery, ah, to remove the bullet, she - the doctor had to remove the portion of the small intestine and - and colon so those two are separated right now, um, with a colostomy bag attached and in about, according to the doctor, in about 3 to 4 months they'll have to be reattached. So she will need another surgery. Um, the bullet that was removed, don't know what happened to that evidentiary wise, so. But, that was the extent of her injuries so far.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED] (TK)

JP: Okay. And you were with her during the, um, time of the shooting?

TK: I was right next to her when she got shot.

JP: Okay.

TK: We were - it was the third volley of rounds. The first volley of rounds, um, I think everybody assumed it was a small volley and it sounded more like firecrackers going off on Las Vegas Strip. Plus the music that was being played by Jason Aldean, it kind of muffled the - the actual sound. Second volley, um, that's when we noticed, um, people started dropping all around us and people starting to run. Um, there was a girl that was shot next to us, where we were standing. Um, and then we tried to grab her - we couldn't. Um, the rounds were too close. They were stopped - when we had dropped to the ground, the rounds stopped. We got up and started running, they started again. We dropped to the ground and this is when we started seeing the bottles on the bar breaking all along the - and that's when I kinda knew these are coming from the back side of us - they are coming from a high spot. And then about at that third volley, she was down on the ground next to me probably about - less than a foot away from me and all of the sudden she said, "Ah, something just hit me." And she said, "It burns - it burns." Stopped firing, got up, grabbed her and said, "Gotta go." We ran. We had some friends of ours, they were - started running with us too. Another volley, we got down, again. Ah, that volley stopped, we got up, started running and we made it to the gate - the exit gate that was on the east side of the fairgrounds there and the concert, heading towards, I think the street was, ah, Harmon and what's that other one, Kor- Korvelle or Korval or something.

JP: K - Koval?

TK: Koval?

JP: Mm-hm.

TK: Yeah. Um, so, we made our way there. Most of the people were making their way to Korvel when shots were - rang out again. Um, I grabbed her, we started running down, at some point as we were running south along that, ah, parking lot - it was a parking lot that was blocked off with gate - gating- iron gating, people were climbing over that. We continued eastbound on that road until we got to a point where I could get some cover and at that point she started complaining of a lot of pain in her stomach. I laid her down on the ground so I could assess where her actual wound was. Um, and I should back track a little bit because when she initially said she got shot, I checked real quick but I didn't find anything. I didn't find any blood or anything and I thought that she was fine. That's why I got her up and we left. We get to the spot off the - there's a, like, a little block wall and a little driveway entrance to the parking lot. We stopped right there, got cover behind the block wall, there happened to be another lady there and she stated that she was a nurse and she said, "My God." I said, "She's been shot. I need to find where the wound is, I need to get something on there." She goes, "Let me help." I said, "All right." Um, unbuckled her shorts and then quickly started reaching around and found where the wound was at

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

EVENT#: 171001-3519

'cause now it was starting to bleed. Um, she grabbed - gave me a t-shirt that was in her hand. I put that on the wound, packed it in, and then I had a little koozie that was - that fell out of my backpack, grabbed a hold of that, put that over the top. I had the woman take my belt off, we wrapped it around Lori and then I got it tight enough that - that it'd keep the wound, you know, packed enough. Grabbed her, picked her up off the ground, carried her down a ways. Another volley of shots came down, got behind - at that time we got behind another, ah, pill- block pillar over there. Then the lady was coming with a white SUV type of vehicle - I don't even know what it was. But, when we opened up the back doors, um, they were yelling at us, "Hey jump in - jump in." We open up the side door and there was already four people in the seat, two in the back and I was like, fuck it let's go. Got her inside and then as we were getting ready to go out, there was a car, a Honda Civic that was blocking the exit out so rather than wait, I got her out again because another volley of rounds, uh, shots, came firing out again. Got her out of the car, went down, around the block wall and at - we ended up at 125 Harmon. There was a truck, I think it was a white truck and then there was a-a red, ah, Ford truck. We hunkered down behind the red truck and at that point there was - there was a lady that was, she looked like she was DOA. She had a gunshot wound, there was a lot of blood. Um, I didn't check on her, I went to the other side. Then there was another person that was shot over there too. Got her down, got her behind cover. There was about five maybe six of us behind that red truck. Another guy comes over with his wife, we get him over there - get him next to - his name was [REDACTED] get him next to [REDACTED] and between the two of 'em I'm keeping pressure on her and then we found out he had suffered a leg wound and somebody had put a tourniquet on his leg. Um, as we're dealing with them, obviously more gunfire in the distance, everybody's getting down, getting down. Um, one of the guys - some guy came up, and don't - don't ask me his name - he was wearing a white shirt, but he said he was an EMT. I identified who I was, where I was from and he, ah, he said, "Okay Sarg., you know, what do ya need?" And I said, "Hey, I'm good here. I've got both of these guys, if you can check on that lady over there, I don't think she's good." He went up, he went to the other side and started working on those two people. Um, there was another girl over there, I guess she had been shot pretty good. Um, I believe somewhere in the chest and maybe the neck area. Um, got - stayed with her and another lady on the - on the phone and she was trying to get a hold of 911. Obviously the lines were very busy. I was dialing 911 on my phone and somehow I was able to get through on about the 7th or 8th time having checked my phone. But I was able to get about the 7th or 8th time and once I got on with them then I started telling dispatch that, "He - this is where we're at, we're hunkered down between two cars, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah," you know, "We need somebody to get down here." And then two of the metro guys showed up, um, young guys, and they were telling us, you know, "Hey, ah, triage is down here, you know." I was like, "Okay." And then I asked if they had any stretchers or anything we could carry the victims out on. They didn't have anything with them. There was nothing available around us so, a few minutes later, um, all of the sudden this lady shows up, and at that time the dispatcher said, "Hey it's gonna be about 6 - 7 minutes before we can even get to you guys, just, you know, stay where you are at." But looking at the lady, looking at her, how she was feeling, and the guy next to me, I was like, "We don't have that time." Just ironically, some lady pulls up in a blue Ford 250. We throw the woman that was, um, in worst shape in the back seat of the 250 and then the EMT guy helps me get her, um, into the back of the truck and then we go get, um, the other guy, the [REDACTED] the leg wound guy, and we get him in the back in the bed of the truck. Then the guy, the ladies husband, his name was [REDACTED], um, he was waiting outside and we're like, "No. Get the fuck in the truck, let's go, you're going with us - you can't leave your wife dude." And then the EMT guy jumped in there too. Don't know his name, like I said, he was wearing a white shirt, nice white - white guy. Um, very clean cut. Um, and then we rolled down to the triage area that was set up. Um, this was my call, okay, nothing against your department, it was my call. When we got down to where the triage area was that was set up, all the ambulances, all the lights were on, um, the area was totally exposed. I looked up, I could see the windows to the Mandalay Bay and that whole upper area. I was like, "Go. Get the fuck out of here." Um, this wasn't a good spot. I don't know - that's beyond the point but we go out, went through the lot, we ended up making a left out onto, I think it's Flamingo there...

JP: Right.

TK: ...or is it Tropicana?

JP: Tropicana would be the first one.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

PAGE 8

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED] (TK)

TK: Tropicana. Okay so we came out on Tropicana there, just as we were coming out on Tropicana, um, heading towards Desert - Desert Inn, there was an ambulance. And I was relaying to the EMT guy, I said, "Follow that fucking ambulance wherever that thing goes, go with him. Just go." And then I basically said, "You just go. Um, I - I - I know I don't have authority to fucking go through the lights, I don't care - blow it, go, we gotta get to the hospital." And so they went all the way down, we - we thought - I mean it seemed like it was taking forever to get down there. And then, ah, when we got to, we finally got around the corner and they said, "Hey, we're here - we're here, we're at Sunrise." Cool. Pulled in and then when we pulled in there was, you know, probably six to ten ambulances already there, there was a line of cars and people coming out. The nursing staff came out to us. We told them, "Hey, we need gurneys, we need, ah - ah, wheelchairs." They rolled two wheelchairs out - one for her and one for that guy [REDACTED] who was shot in the leg. They got the lady out in the back and then put her on a gurney and started rolling her 'cause she was pretty bad. Um, and then, ah, um, once we got her in then she and I were separated. Once we got in the emergency room they wouldn't let me in and so, ah, after the next 3 1-2 hours after that it was kinda dealing with her and, you know, kind of a -a waiting game - so, but, we - we tried to get as many people, as soon as I recognized there was gunfire we just started yelling at people, "Get out." 'Cause it was a complete, I mean you're - completely exposed. There was nowhere to go. And watching that bar just get blown up like it was, we weren't staying there, you know.

TK: We arrived, yeah, we took a flight - a Delta flight in on Friday, ah, arrived at, ah, - arrived at about 9:50 ish and then, ah, we had a room with our friends, ah, over at, um, the - we were staying in a room at the MGM. In fact our room actually faced out towards the - the, ah, festival.

JP: And - And so then, ah, on, ah, Sunday, you guys get to the event at what time?

TK: We got to the event, ah, about 6:30. [REDACTED] were - they had just started playing that night.

JP: Okay. So you guys were listening, ah, Jason Aldean had just got on, ah, started to perform...

TK: Yeah.

TK: Yes, 'cause we went - we went - it goes, if you're looking at the fairgrounds here.

JP: Right.

TK: And the stage - stage was here.

JP: Uh-huh.

TK: Ah, on the southbound side. We were on the westbound - we were on the west side closest to Mandalay Bay.

JP: Okay.

TK: And closest to the strip. And so we went out the back way 'cause that's was the way we were leaving every night from the concert. Because we would take that, I guess it's Korbel...

JP: Yeah - yeah - yeah - I know what you're talking about - that access street.

TK: That access street on the back. So we were taking that out and then we'd go down through Tropicana and then cross Tropicana's backside and then hit that - that walk, um, the pedestrian walkway to the MGM, 'cause we were staying at the MGM, and then we could go into the front entrance there, at the MGM. So, on this one, I choose not to go that way because of the massive amount of people and then the fact that
